CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

The 2012 Abdominal Radiology Course is a joint presentation of the Society of Gastrointestinal Radiologists and the Society of Uroradiology, which brings together outstanding educators for a program highlighting:

- Problem solving for common issues in abdominal and pelvic imaging with practical solutions
- Extensive small group workshop presentations allowing registrants to individualize the educational content
- Exposure to new and emerging technologies in the imaging diagnosis of abdominal and pelvic pathology

The course format utilizes didactic lectures, general interest presentations, panel discussions, technical displays and interactive workshops in a mix that optimizes the educational opportunities for registrants. The Scientific Paper Sessions of both societies are open to all registrants and numerous educational and scientific posters will be available for study throughout the meeting. Designed primarily for radiologists in practice and in training, this course will also benefit all physicians who care for patients with gastrointestinal and genitourinary disease.

At the conclusion of the course, registrants should be able to:

1. Apply the most up-to-date and practical information for imaging diagnosis and intervention in common abdominal problems
2. Appropriately implement new and emerging techniques in abdominal CT, MR, US and PET
3. Successfully manage common problems encountered in performing everyday abdominal examinations
4. Understand the newest topics and results in clinical research in abdominal radiology

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION
